Can You Name that Plane?

Clue #1: During the 1950's, this plane was intended to replace the A-1 Skyraider. The plane had a turbine-powered engine with contra-rotating props, giving it twice the power of the A-1 Skyraider.

Clue #2: Due largely to the failure of the T40 program to produce a reliable engine and the increased reliability of jet engines, the plane never entered operational service.

Clue #3: Only twelve were built, two flew. Most were scrapped or destroyed in accidents. Only one has survived and is currently a static display at the airport in Idaho Falls, Idaho.

Romi Lucas' Foam Cutting Class

During the December club meeting, Romi conducted a twenty minute class on how to cut and shape foamboard into a functional wing.

Romi brought in all of his locally purchased items required to properly and safely cut foamboard. He then went on to explain how to build the items and did a demonstration of cutting the foamboard.

For completed details of the process, you can contact Romi and he would be happy to assist you! Romi's email: crazyflyer@hotmail.com

"Romi demonstrates the technique of cutting foamboard using locally purchased items."
